STATIONARY DISTRIBUTION

On 10 December 2018, volunteers of Akshar distributed stationery items to the students who are benefiting from this project.

They interacted with the students and gave them some valuable inputs. The students were very pleased and promised to put the books and other items to good use.

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION

Akshar always strives to emerge out something new for its students and children's day being a day specially for them, the Akshar family thought of a different beat and gifted a fun.

This day as we know marks the birthday of Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru and his love for children.

On 14th November 2018, the Volunteers of Akshar, under the guidance of faculty coordinator of Akshar, Dr. Charu Arya hosted a program for students in order to express their love and care for them.

College ground being the venue of our program was decorated. The programme started at 10 AM, with Saraswati Vandna and a beautiful speech delivered by Charu ma'am for the students. Thereafter, students presented programmes which they had been preparing for many days. These very young children presented dance, skits and songs. Even some students delivered speeches on Pt Nehru. It looked very nice. The audience cheered the young performers with clapping.

It took around 2 hours to end the programme. In the end, the faculty coordinator of Akshar, Dr. Charu Arya gave away the prizes to the young winners. The Programme ended with National Anthem. Everybody enjoyed the programme a lot. Volunteers distributed Frooti and Chocolates among all the students.

In a way, these young children made the day very memorable for all who were present.

On 10 December 2018, volunteers of Akshar distributed stationery items to the students who are benefiting from this project.

They interacted with the students and gave them some valuable inputs. The students were very pleased and promised to put the books and other items to good use.

The camp started at around 11 a.m. and went up till 3 p.m. on all the three days. The primary purpose of the donation camp was to collect funds and donations from anyone who was willing to give. All the students and the teachers were invited to donate money, stationery items, books, school bags and any other item they deemed fit for the children. The artefacts were sold for a nominal cost, so as to add to the other donations.

Some students of Akshar also came despite having to come again in the afternoon for their usual classes and participated to help the volunteers set up things and increase donations.

A large number of students and teachers of the college participated in the camp. People enthusiastically donated and bought the artefacts on display. The Donation Camp was a big success for the complete family of Akshar: all the volunteers, the Faculty Coordinator Dr. Charu Arya, and all the students of Akshar.

Children were praised by everyone for the work they did so beautifully.

The occasion was not over yet, the fun part just began. A dance competition was planned for the day, and we started with the same. The volunteers brought the Bluetooth speakers to play the songs. The excitement level of the students were on the top of the roof, they started practicing the same time, when we announced about the competition. Everyone was dressed amazingly beautiful , wearing colourful dresses depicting our tri-colours. Everyone worked so hard in rehearsing their performances and perfecting their moves, which was visible in their tremendously beautiful performances. Everyone enjoyed so much, they danced like a free birds, they all live in the moment . This came out to be very fulfilling and satisfying for both the students and volunteers.

Many other competitions were planned for the day, which were further followed after the dance competition, which turns out to be joyful. Later, several fun activities were planned for the kids. Since the children got a little tired from sitting in the same position for a couple of hours continuously, we let them enjoy themselves. The volunteers ensured that they did not run away inside the college building or outside the circumference that we set for them to stay inside , and the same was explained to them. They participated enthusiastically in various activities including singing, dancing, poem recitation and other fun games. It was make sure by the volunteers that all the children are taken care off and no one faced any type of problem.

As to create the day memorable, the group photos were taken and the children were provided with the refreshments. The happiness on their faces were very satisfying . The children went home with their parents who had come to receive them, with their hands full of refreshments and their hearts filled with joy.

A Small prize distribution Ceremony was held the next day, all the students who actively participated in various activities and did a great job were awarded with prizes. The excitement of the previous day had still not faded, with a touch of tiredness as a result of all the hard work put in to make the occasion as eventful as possible, and ensuring that the children enjoyed themselves. The children were given a off that day. The children went back home, with the satisfaction of another successful event.
